I can see it.

I can see the future of the work environment - it's my generation that will be occupying it! I can bring to any work space new and exciting ideas, fresh from my recently completed degree program.

I'm a visual person, with a great knack for detail. I get an idea of how a space should look like and feel when it's being moved through, and hang on until it's a reality. I particularly enjoy engaging in this process with my clients. Involving many voices in exchanging view points, opinions and style considerations is challenging and rewarding.

A well designed space that looks good and people feel good in - that's the stuff my daydreams are made of!
